

Waking With The Henge

Welcome to the perfect morning with numbers becoming one, drumming up the blue moon fever warmed by the dawning sun, power forms the peace of focus to mend the broken hearts, nursing faith with understanding in all its many parts.

Welcome to the wafts of colour that calm the inner soul, energies that shine with wonder let the moment take control, the lighting of an inner lantern behold the time and place, the feeling of the inner circle transcending time and space.
