

Hearts of Harmony!

Water, water everywhere and it cleanses our belief,
It pours on our arrival and it bathes away the grief!
Weaving a web of contemplation under a canopy of peace,
Opening the hearts of harmony and the will of true release!

Walking the walk of sheltered homage the rays unto their light,
So warm is the welcome in our spirits - to see us through the night!
Sharing the mood at passions fingertips - we brighten with the fire,
The raw nerve endings of vibrancy dancing dances of desire!

Joining the flow of nature's fluidity and the surrender of the trees,
The multitude – the density of destiny – one entity at its ease!
It's a symphony of euphony and we enter on the breeze,
Dissolving and re-harmonizing we sail the lunar seas!
