

The Awakening!

Welcome to our world awakening,
And the glory of life's re-birth,
Welcome to the new Sunwheel turning,
Around the majesty of the Earth!

Feel the warmth of our celebration,
And the love we have to share,
We feel the passion and your gift of wonder,
And the love that's always there.

Together we feel the Sap is rising,
Like the energy that we share within,
The life-blood that we share with Nature,
That flows deep beneath the skin.

We honour you for your hope and guidance,
And the company it keeps,
We feel your love on this path of pathways,
Upon this Earth of waking winter sleeps.
