
As We Follow Our Path!

*Welcoming the will of the wild awakening,
We journey with the circle and its forward roll!
We crave for the chance - at this mortal dance,
As we follow our path with a musing stroll!*

*With the melting of the ice and new beginnings,
We gather with the circle and feel your love!
We have witnessed snow - watched it come and go,
As we follow our path under the sky above!*

*Warming with the wonder of seasonal harmony,
We celebrate with the circle and feel its hold!
We hear the future's call - to one and all,
As we follow our path out of the dark and cold!*

*We breathe in the glow of the young sun shining,
We share with the circle a contented smile!
The Snowdrops sway - as they live each day,
As we follow our path through histories while!*

*We see Seasonal Primroses divide and conquer,
We bond with the circle and their hopeful bloom!
So their beauty sings - with the love it brings,
As we follow our path through the winter gloom!*

*We celebrate the awakening this new sun-wheel,
Uniting with the circles as the sun-wheel turns!
Moving forth with germinating seed - living life with nature's deed,
As we follow our path where the flame still burns!*
